SOCIALS by Betty / Sandy

Spring is on the way. What better time for a BBQ, Wednesday 25th September, leaving Churches of Christ 9:45am and WIRAC 10am for Leslie Dam.

On arrival we will meet a representative from Sun Water who will explain what is happening to the area. Plenty of time to walk up to the carvings of Patrick and Mrs Leslie, and the Dam wall, while Bob and the team prepare lunch. After a leisurely lunch we can have a game of bocce or corn hole, or just sit around enjoying the friendship and surroundings before we head home via the Washpool.

Don't forget a plate, cup and cutlery, a chair if you need a back rest as the tables only have stools. For catering purposes please contact Betty if you wish to attend but haven't put your name down, Cost $25.

Fancy a nostalgic day in Clifton at the movies. Wednesday 13th November, leaving Churches of Christ 8am and WIRAC 8:15am for morning tea at the movie theatre.

The movie will be an Australian classic "A Town Like Alice" starring Peter Finch. Lunch is alternate drop at the Irish pub. With a detour via the aerodrome on the way home.

Cost $50, names by November meeting for catering purposes. Looking forward to spending these memorable days with as many of you as possible.

We, the committee, are open to suggestions for outings. Coffee mornings, lunches, picnic's or BBQ's. Please advise anyone of your preference. We are looking forward to input from our members. Thanks to All

Quotes and Quips

- Opportunity has to knock, but it's enough for temptation to stand outside.
- Some people's idea of physical fitness consists of exercising their opinions about the actions of others.
- It may be a man's world, but chances are it's in his wife's name.
- A diplomat is a man who puts his best foot forward when he doesn't have a leg to stand on.
- Courtship, unlike proper punctuation, is a period before a sentence.
- Character is what we are. Reputation is what we've got the world thinking we are.
- Children are creatures who disgrace us in public by behaving just like we do at home.
- A wife is just the opposite of a fisherman; she brags about the ones that got away and complains about the one she caught.
- The biggest difference between communism and capitalism, is plenty.
- Some parents begin with giving in, and end up giving up.
- It's not the coffee, but the price of it that keeps people awake.
- The man who wins most of his arguments usually loses most of his friends.
- Rumours without a leg to stand on still have a way of getting around.
- People who recognise that money won't buy happiness are still willing to see if credit cards will do the trick.
- It's the thing he learns across his mother's knee that makes a youngster smart.
- Money talks, but today's dollar doesn't have cents enough to say very much.
